Sheriff Edward N. Bonner releases the following:

Placer County Sheriff's deputies responded to the Bank of America in Loomis for a subject attempting to pass a fictitious check. Employees at the bank discovered the check was fictitious and called 911. The subject left the bank with three other suspects. They were driving a green Ford Taurus on Taylor Road. While the suspects were driving away from Bank of America, Placer County Sheriff's Deputy Craig Thomas pulled behind the suspects. At the intersection of Sierra College and Granite Drive all four suspects fled on foot.

Mutual assistance was requested from neighboring jurisdictions. All four suspects were taken into custody with the assistance of Rocklin Police Department. The suspects were located and arrested for conspiracy to commit burglary. James Standefer was also booked for Parole violation. Warren Galsote had a no-bail warrant out of Sacramento and Yolo counties.
